Hopkins River – Proposed Naming of Reserve

The City of Warrnambool Rowing Club (WRC) has requested that the area between E.J King Park and Scoborio Reserve be named as "Rowers Reserve" to recognise the contribution made by rowers in World War I.

In November 1916, an Honour Roll was unveiled in Warrnambool by then Mayor Webb acknowledging the more than 50 club members who returned from active service.

Rowing clubs of Victoria had supplied over a thousand men to the war effort and every WRC member of military age had volunteered for service.

The Office of Geographic Names requires the community to be consulted before any naming of public places.
