COMMUNITY POLICY PARKING CONCESSIONS FOR WAR SERVICE PERSONNEL

Objective –This policy has been developed to give community recognition to residents of the City of Warrnambool who represented Australia in active war service, in the form of free parking in the Council-controlled parking areas where metered parking exists.

This permit is only valid in the Warrnambool municipality.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

The permit scheme is available by application:

- To persons currently residing within the Warrnambool City Council boundaries.
- Who have actively served overseas with the Australian Forces. These conflicts must be recognised by the department of Veterans Affairs.

Any disputes on eligibility shall be resolved with the assistance of the local branch Returned Services League and/or the Department of Veterans Affairs. The onus for proof of eligibility is the responsibility of the applicant.

APPLICATION

The permit scheme “Parking Concessions for War Service Personnel” will be administered by Council. Applications for permits shall be evaluated according to the established eligibility criteria.

Parking concessions are applicable to the exemption of parking fees only. Permit stickers must be displayed on the windscreen so as to be readily visible. Permits are issued for a 2 year period. Permits are non-transferable. The permit shall contain the registered number of the vehicle owned by the applicant.

A permit is automatically cancelled after the expiry date or demise of the permit holder. Willful misuse of the permit may also result in immediate cancellation. Following such cancellation, the permit must be returned to Council within 7 days.
