The Arts Apothecary:

A vital prescription for health, happiness and wellbeing.

Tuesday 9th October 2018

Jill Rivers has been immersed in making arts and culture accessible for over forty years - as a journalist specialising in food, wine and the arts, later as Media Director of the Australian Ballet.

In 2008 Jill abandoned city life to move to the Macedon Ranges, where she established Daylesford Macedon Ranges Open Studio and Art-full Conversations - sharing the secrets of Movers, Shakers & Creators in a series of salon-like talks.
