

Public Notices

Council has received a proposal to name two un-named laneways.

The first is the laneway that takes you into Ozone Carpark from Timor Street and the other is the laneway that runs off the first one and provides access to the rear of properties along Timor Street.

The proposed name for laneway 1 is De Grandi Lane.

The De Grandi's were well known for their sports goods store which operated at Timor Street. The business was founded by Lou De Grandi in 1847 and was a family operated business for 114 years closing in 2011. The former De Grandi's Sportsgoods Store sign is proudly maintained in the laneway.

The proposed name for laneway 2 is Dispensary Lane.

In recognition of the laneway's connection to Kennedy's Drug Store in Timor Street and the significant contribution that Richard Kennedy made to the formation years of Warrnambool.

For more information on the proposal please go to Council's website; www.warrnambool.vic.gov.au/roads-and-road-safety

You may make a written submission in respect of the proposal which must be lodged with Council no later than close of business on 23 December 2022.
