Request for Quotation – Consultancy Public Health in a Changing Climate Forum

Warrnambool City Council is in process of delivering a Public Health in Changing Climate Forum in late May 2023.

Council is seeking to recruit a Consultant to assist with the planning and management of the Forum. This involves coordinating the working group and a range of internal and external stakeholders, finalising the planning of the event, booking the venue, scheduling and organising speakers, managing all event operations (invitations, registrations, catering, IT support, displays, evaluation). It is preferred that the Consultant operate out of Warrnambool City Council premises to assist with collaboration and to avoid delays, at least two days a week.

Please email your consultant profile and quotation to communityplanning@warrnambool.vic.gov.au by Friday 3 March 2023. The quotation should include daily rate and the estimation of the number of days needed to achieve the successful organisation of the forum, an ABN and public liability insurance of $5 million.

Interested consultants please email communityplanning@warrnambool.vic.gov.au for scope of work and evaluation criteria.

Business Support

THIS WEEK – Wednesday 1 March @ Ponting's Mitre 10
