VCOSS – Voices of Victoria Listening Tour

Hosted by West Warrnambool Neighbourhood House

VCOSS - Victorian Council of Social Service is leading a community consultation to inform their approach to social recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic. The pandemic has impacted communities in all sorts of ways: physical health, mental health, unemployment, caring, education and community connectedness.

VCOSS want to hear from communities about what is important to them in the recovery from COVID-19, and what they need in order to live better lives post-COVID. The information collected at this community consultation will be used to inform private and public advocacy programs, and to advise government policymakers.

The consultation will be held at Archie Graham Centre on Wednesday 6 April 2022 from 12.30pm – 3pm.

Registered participating community members will receive a $20 voucher for their attendance.

Lunch and afternoon tea will be provided. Bookings are essential!

If you require further information or wish to register your attendance contact Jill at West Warrnambool Neighbourhood House on phone 0418 944 276 or email jbourke@warrnambool.vic.gov.au
