2015 Warrnambool City Citizen Tour of Japan Public Information Session

The Warrnambool City Council International Relations Committee is inviting Warrnambool residents to lodge Expressions of Interest to join a Tour of Japan in March/April of 2015.

The tour includes visits to:

- World Heritage Temple and Garden Sites in Kyoto.
- Hiroshima Peace Memorial Park and Museum.
- Miyajima.
- Mount Fuji National Park Hakone.
- Tokyo.
- Four day stay in our Sister-City, Miura, (two nights of which will be a Homestay with our Japanese family hosts).

The primary aim of this tour is to introduce members to our Sister-City and to enhance understanding of Japan, its culture and people. The tour is planned to take advantage of the beautiful cherry blossom season in Japan.

A public information session will be held at the Warrnambool City Council, Reception Room on Tuesday 29 July, 5.45pm where further details will be available, with the opportunity for questions and to secure a place on the tour. Tour participant numbers are limited. To register or for further information please contact Annabel Cussen via email acussen@warrnambool.vic.gov.au or phone 5559 4849.

Powercor Warrnambool Business Excellence Awards are now open for nominations!

The Powercor Business Excellence awards provide a great opportunity for local Warrnambool businesses to gain recognition for their achievements and to discuss their goals and future directions with an experienced and professional business mentor.

We encourage all businesses to nominate; whether there is one employee or 100, the awards are open to all!

For further information and to access a nomination form go to www.warrnambool.vic.gov.au. For all queries and assistance with nominations contact Annabel Cussen on 5559 4849 or email acussen@warrnambool.vic.gov.au
