Flying Start School Readiness Program

Is Your Child Ready?

To help children with the move from kinder to grade prep the Warrnambool and District Network of Schools, supported by Warrnambool City Council, is offering a school readiness program – Flying Start – for parents and children.

Flying Start is open to children starting their first year of school at any Warrnambool and District Primary School in 2015. It's a great way to help prepare your children for the wonderful educational challenges they will be taking on at school.

The sessions for parents and children are spread over five weeks and will run twice during August-September-October. The Flying Start program will be hosted by Warrnambool East Primary School and the cost for both parent and children sessions are $130. For further information download a brochure www.warrnambool.vic.gov.au/flying-start, or to book contact the school on 5562 4100.
