Ref: MB/20150530/1067

Warrnambool Art Gallery (WAG) is seeking a new director.

The WAG, part of Warrnambool City Council, comprises a collection of more than 1,750 art works displayed in four different exhibition spaces.

Along with taking overall responsibility for gallery operations and management, the successful candidate will take the lead in charting the future direction for the gallery, investigating and implementing innovative ideas to enhance its exhibition and public programs and its collection.

The position offers an exciting, unique opportunity for a leader with visual arts experience, entrepreneurial flair, and strong organisational, communication and stakeholder engagement skills.

The city of Warrnambool matches the dynamism of the WAG. Surrounded by green dairy country overlooking the deep blue of the Southern Ocean, Warrnambool has a population of 33,500 and is the commercial, social, health, education, arts and recreational centre of south-west Victoria.
