Have Your Say

Warrnambool's Economic Development & Investment Strategy 2015-2020

Have your say on Warrnambool's economic development future

This Warrnambool Economic Development and Investment Strategy was developed in-house by Warrnambool City Council with input from many of our business and community leaders. The purpose of the Strategy is to provide direction and promotion of the many initiatives considered most necessary to ensure continued growth and prosperity of our local economy. This Strategy will remain broad in focus and pointed towards 2020, but will have associated with it an annual Implementation Action Plan which further details actions, priorities, resources and responsibilities.

You can lodge your submission on the draft at www.yoursaywarrnambool.com.au

Alternatively, written submissions can be mailed to:

Andrew Paton

Manager Economic Development and Investment

PO Box 198, Warrnambool Victoria 3280

Submissions close on Friday 21 August at 5pm.

FREEDOM CAMPING – ISSUES AND POLICY FORUM

A chance for your input

WCC is hosting a public forum on 'Freedom Camping' to hear community feedback on the way we as a community view this issue. This Council forum will explore the perceptions and issues on Freedom Camping and its impact in Warrnambool. It aims to provide Warrnambool City Council with guidance on these impacts (positive and negative) and the way we as a community can manage this issue in both a policy and practical sense. Interested community members are welcome to attend this workshop forum, which will be conducted as an interactive session. Your feedback and input will be a valuable addition to the Council's consideration and its position, on the broader issue of Freedom Camping.

POSTPONED DATE TBC

Venue: Warrnambool City Council Civic Centre, 25 Liebig Street, Warrnambool.

WCC intend circulating a discussion paper prior to the session.

If you would like to attend or require further information please call Eddie from Economic Development on 5559 4925 or email
