Real Estate Firms Registrations of Interest Sale of Land Warrnambool

Council is currently reviewing a number of sites for possible disposal. As part of this process real estate firms operating in the Warrnambool area are invited to submit "Registrations of Interest" in respect to marketing of the land on Council's behalf,

The process of the "Registration of Interest" will involve an initial discussion with the Manager Revenue & Property Mr Glendon Dickinson where the parameters of the land sales will be set out. Those indicating an interest in continuing in the process will then make a submission setting out their marketing program together with marketing budgets and commission basis.

Should real estate firms be interested in being involved in this process please contact the Manager Revenue & Property on 5559 4800. Close off date for the final registration is 23 March 2019.
