

Growing Stronger Families Supported Playgroup

Warrnambool City Council welcomes you and your family to come along to our Growing Stronger Families Playgroup.

This facilitated playgroup is free for parents with children aged from birth to 4 years. During the group Smalltalk strategies will be introduced to parent's and carers, Smalltalk is a number of parenting essentials that are based on evidence and importance of everyday interactions parents and carers have with their child.

Smalltalk promotes parents to:

- Interact with children in a warm and gentle manner
- Tuning in to children by giving them your full attention frequently and promptly
- Following your child's lead in whatever they show interest in
- Listening and Talking to children more frequently
- Using teachable moments when they arise

Places are limited in these groups and priority of access will apply for those that meet an eligibility criteria.
