HISTORY + HERITAGE

I AM THE CRINKLE IN TIME THAT LETS YOU PLAY IN THE PAST.

Come poke your nose into by-gone eras. Thrill to salty maritime tales. Chuckle at our forebears' quirky ways. Marvel at old stone buildings and dig your toes into sand where ancient peoples did the same.

There are rich stories to be told of the Warrnambool yesteryear. Marvel at landmarks such as the breakwater, Wollaston Bridge, Botanic Gardens or the Boathouse all with their own story to tell. Marvel at the historic buildings and explore some that remain relatively unchanged.

Flagstaff Hill's Maritime Village reflects the pioneering atmosphere of an 1870s coastal port. Experience firsthand the perils of early sea travel as you explore the relics and treasures recovered from the various shipwrecks in the Great Circle Gallery.

HERITAGE MUSTS

- Spend a whole day exploring every inch of Flagstaff Hill Maritime Village – an 1870s outdoor village with an incredible shipwreck collection, theatre, galleries, tearooms, kids activities and a lighthouse to clamber up. Then experience Flagstaff Hill's Sound & Light Show each evening.

| flagstaffhill.com

- See the Warmambool CBD through fresh eyes. Grab a guide map and wander the 3km Heritage Walk to famous historic buildings. Make it a treasure hunt: find the wheat-sheaf motif marking the original Smith's Bakery and church spire shortened by a lightning strike.
- Fossick for keepsakes among 30-plus collectables and vintage clothing stalls at Fletcher Jones Markets, housed in an iconic clothing factory. Take a stroll down memory lane in its heritage-listed 1940s gardens.
- At Point Ritchie-Moyjil lookout, marvel at an incredible river-meets-thundering-ocean panorama and a landscape that's drawn Indigenous people for tens of thousands of years. Like all great stories, it's only half-told; the best is yet to come.

A young boy with blonde hair, wearing a black captain's hat with a gold emblem and a green and yellow plaid shirt, holds a glowing red lantern. He is smiling and looking towards the camera. The background is a scenic view of a historic village at sunset, with buildings like the 'STEAM PACKET INN' and a lighthouse reflected in the water. A large red stylized logo is at the top.
