Recommended Documents

Council recommends you submit a scaled floor plan of the premises showing the location of equipment (such as benches, sinks, cooking equipment, canopies, walls and doors).

A schedule of finishes (materials to be used on floors, walls, etc.) is also recommended to ensure compliance with the Food Standards Code.

If a copy of the menu is available, this should also be attached.

Council's Environmental Health Officers will be able to provide feedback on the plans and let you know if any alterations are required before work begins.

Council requires at least 10 working days prior to opening date to process applications.

Proposed opening date*:

Please Note: An 'application to register a food premises' form with the registration fee must be submitted to Council prior to operating a food business. This registration fee includes all pre-registration inspections.

If you request an inspection by one of Council's Environmental Health Officers prior to submitting payment with the 'application to register a food premises' form the request for inspection fee of $210.00 must be paid with this form.
